Rosette

I have had a lot of fun running around with you this year and I hope we will have still more fun next year. Don't ever forget the fun we had in Mrs. Reed's room + in History when we almost drove Mrs. Campbell nuts. Remember the nights I spent with you and ~~we~~ you took the picture of me (I promise not to show it to Wade). Also, don't forget the Party up at Richard's. we had a real good time that night. You are a very close friend and I hope you will continue to be. Always keep your friendly Smile and sweet personality. Good luck.

Barbara C.

Rosette,

It has been loads of fun going to school and playing basketball with you. I hope that you make the first string next year. I just took in the back the book and I found where I had written once. But that don't matter I don't want you to forget me. Good luck in your senior year. It will be fun.

9 7 ever always

Senior Will

State of North Carolina
County of Jackson

We, the Senior Class of 1958, of County of Jackson and State of North Carolina, being in good health, of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish, this our last will and testament, hereby revoking, all wills by us at any time heretofore made.

Felix Ashe leaves his lofty position as bus driver to Johnny Jones.
Glenn Frizzell wills his position of official flag raiser to Paul Gribble.
Mildred McMahan leaves her neatness to Lydia Hall.
Betty Jean Frady wills her black hair and brown eyes to Janice Monteith.
Donald Green leaves his bookkeeping struggles to Gail Leatherwood.
James Holder wills his privilege to come to school late to Bobby Ray Wilson.
Frankie Mathis leaves her position on the cheerleading squad to Brenda Bishop.
Jim Rhinehart bequeaths his storekeeping job to Cosette Monteith.
Rachel Reed wills her title "Most Popular Girl" to Betty Dillard.
Wilda Lou Rogers bequeaths her quietness to Ella Mae Farmer.
Billy Leatherwood leaves his speed record to Ray McConnell.
Mack Lewis leaves his basketball uniform to William Lewis.
Harold Ensley leaves his money making ability to Virco Farmer.
Audrey Buchanan gives her ability to be in chorus for four years to Joan Phillips.
Shirley Cabe and Clara Ashe leave their fifth period study hall to Linda Green and Nina Frizzell.
Ermajean Crisp bequeaths her job as business manager for the HILLTOPPER to Barbara Cowan.
Charles Williams gives his editorials to Richard Hall.
Boyd Franklin leaves to Ben Johnson his privilege to loaf during study hall.
Bessie McMahan bequeaths her study halls to Patsy Ashe.
Wilma Hall leaves her library practice to Bragaleen Allison.
Kate Buchanan leaves fourth period office practice to Ronnie Guffey.
Billy Frye and Joe Sidney Fulmer bequeath their good citizenship to Julian Buchanan.
Ella Cook leaves her French book to Paul Lewis.
Gene Jones and Burnell Johnson leave their free movie tickets to Kenneth Buchanan.
Johnny Lewis leaves his ambitions to Winston Reed.
Bob McConnell bequeaths a copy of his term paper to Davis Green.
Calvin Wilson leaves his privilege to drive his car to school to Pat Angel.

Thus we make and publish our last will and testament hereto signing and subscribing our names this the 24th day of May, 1958, in the presence of Mrs. D. D. Davis and Mr. Ernest D. Penland who attest the same at our request and in our presence.
